About us

Beyond the norm since 2019

We are a group of professionals who started with a couple of young people specialized in interpretation and information technology. One day, amidst social unrest and the emergence of the pandemic, we decided to build windmills instead of trying to stop the wind. We implemented an online system for simultaneous interpretation, using one's computer knowledge and the other's linguistic expertise. We were the pioneers of this modality in Chile, and we continue to apply methods to unify the online and in-person worlds with your message and audiences.
